mogordo.

A number of varieties of peaches are being shipped, but the Elberta is the more pepular peach and is being grown more extensively here than any other species. The growers say that there will not be as many boxes of peaches shipped from Alamozordo this year as there was last year, but the quality will be better and the size larger. The shipments are practically all being made by express.

Weed Man Writes Song.

"Goodbye, My Dear Old & O. P." is the title of a new song. The words are by J. M. Reed, of Weed, and the music is by L. A. Clark. The music is written in fox trot tempo and the words are a satirical arraignment of Roosevelt's political ambitions. Mr. Reed, the composer, has made his home in the Sacramento mountains, east of Alamogordo. For several years.

W. J. Anderson, a ranger in the Alamo national forest, who has been stationed in Alamogordo for the part year, has left for Clouderoft, where he will make his headquarters. He will be at the head of the fire protection department in the forest.
